Order for Release

Charles C., Miller, having specially appeared before the Court upon verified Complaints of numerous violations of United States Code. The Court having reviewed the complaints and exhibits annexed there to finds cause may exist for the charges.

Wherefore it is apparent that Relator Charles C., Miller is suffering pain and has been untreated, the court finds these circumstances to be unusual in the extreme. In order to protect from further harm and possible permanent injury it is in the interest of justice that Relator Miller receive an independent medical review of the conditions as they now exist.

Undersigned, majority in age, competent to contract, not delinquent nor adjudged incompetent, distressed, attached, liended, assessed, under any fully disclosed process or proceedings, not lawfully impaired in any manner whatsoever, first being duly sworn, states and declares the following are true and correct, not meant to mislead, of first hand personal knowledge, so stated under the pains and penalties of perjury under law.

Harley Lappin, a natural man of the land openly, of notorious record, pledged his fidelity to specific performance under PL-89-554, September 6, 1996, 80 Stat 424, Thereby inviting acceptance under his public service, a "public trust" wherein "Each employee has a responsibility to the United States Government and its citizens to place loyalty to the constitution, laws, and ethical principals above private gain". 5 CFR § 2635.101 (a) and (9)(1); primarily the purpose of public officials "oath of office" and "fidelity bond" creating a duty and obligation, a liability an enforceable contract, a "debt" to the Undersigned.

Undersigned accepts Harley Lappin's, a man of the land, possessing free will, did in fact and deed openly, notoriously, upon public record, pledge of his personal fidelity to specific performance under PL-89-544, September 6, 1996, 80 Stat 424, found at Title 5 USC § 3311, Thereby inviting acceptance upon his performance in/of office of Public Trust as given to Harley Lappin d.b.a. HARLEY LAPPIN, Bureau of Prisons, under law governing his office as non-discretionary, ministerial function.
